

Defense Nominees Approved After Agreeing To Sell Stocks

Committee Sends Names To Senate

Washington (AP)—The Senate Armed Services Committee approved two businessmen as secretaries of the Army and Air Force yesterday after they agreed under pressure to dispose of their multi-million dollar holdings in defense industries.

Robert T. B. Stevens, 53, a New Jersey textile man, won a unanimous endorsement for the Army job.

Harold E. Talbott, 64, was approved for the post of Secretary of the Air Force. He is a New York industrialist.

The committee also recommended Senate confirmation of Robert E. Anderson, 42, a Texas rancher and oil man, as Secretary of the Navy. Anderson's financial interests were not considered to be in conflict with his naval duties.

Stevens reluctantly told the senators that he would sell his 1 1/2 million dollar interest in J. P. Stevens & Co., Inc., a family textile enterprise, if the senators insisted on it.

But he said if such a sacrifice were necessary to win Senate confirmation it would discourage other successful businessmen from entering government service.

Talbott offered to sell or give away all his industrial holdings except a 6 1/2 per cent interest in the Talbott Corporation, which he described as a family holding company.

The committee stood firm on its position that neither would be confirmed unless they divested themselves of all financial interests in companies doing business with the armed services.

After the public hearing Stevens and Talbott were closeted with the committee at separate private sessions. Sen. Hunt (D-Wyo.) reported they were told they must sell out.

Stevens had testified his company has about 11 million dollars in contracts pending with the government. It is a major supplier of textiles to the army.

Chairman Saltonstall (R-Mass.) said that until Stevens gets rid of his stock he is to disqualify himself with respect to any business done by the Defense Department with the Stevens Company.

The vote on Stevens and Anderson was unanimous, but Sen. Ke-fauver (D-Tenn.) said he had voted against Talbott. He said he would continue to oppose Talbott until he had an opportunity to study "certain reports and record further."

All three men were picked personally by Charles E. Wilson, the new secretary of defense. President Eisenhower sent their nominations to the Senate at noon. He also sent Saltonstall a letter appealing for quick action so Wilson could put his "full team" to work.

Saltonstall indicated his committee's recommendations would be considered by the full Senate early next week.

Nurse Held For Burying Own Child

Clovis, N. M., (AP)—A handwritten manuscript describing the burial of a new-born baby led yesterday to the arrest of a practical nurse.

Sheriff Val Baumgart disclosed that the manuscript, allegedly written by nurse Christine Weigl Sturm, 27, described in fiction form a nurse's life, climaxing with the burial of an infant beneath a garage floor.

Guided by the manuscript and by references in the story to events which Baumgart knew to have happened, searchers Wednesday dug up the skeleton of an infant.

Baumgart estimated it had been buried beneath the dirt floor of a garage in February, 1946. He said Mrs. Sturm formerly lived in an apartment over the garage.

The sheriff was hesitant to disclose how the manuscript came into his possession, but said Mrs. Sturm's ex-husband, divorced three weeks ago, was instrumental in placing the manuscript in the hands of the law.

The nurse, a regular employee of the Clovis Memorial Hospital, was charged with second degree murder of her own child.

Doolittle Sees Airplane Speeds Of 20,000 MPH

Washington (AP)—Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle said yesterday U. S. manufacturers are designing jet transports which will be able to cross the continent in four hours.

The famed aviator foresees airplane speeds approaching 20,000 miles an hour, or more than 15 times the speed of the rotation of the earth.

"I do not betray any confidence when I say that jet transports—on which several American companies already have done design work—will be capable of linking New York and Los Angeles in four hours."

Heated Word Battle Between Wiley, Morse Marks Senate Confirmation Of Appointees

Washington (AP)—The Senate confirmed two more of President Eisenhower's State Department appointments yesterday after a heated word battle between its Foreign Relations Committee chairman and Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore).

Chairman Wiley (R-Wis.) accused Morse of filibustering tactics when he temporarily blocked one of the nominations. Morse, in turn, offered to take anybody on "in a donnybrook" if they resented his insistence on full information about appointees.

Mentioned during the flareup was Morse's loss of major committee assignments as a result of his bolt from the Republican party in last Fall's presidential election campaign.

The fireworks began when the Senate confirmed the nomination of Carl W. McCordie, former Washington correspondent for the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, to be an assistant secretary of state and then took up the nomination of another assistant secretary, former Rep. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky.

Morse demanded committee reports on both McCordie and Morton. Majority Leader Taft (R-Ohio) said it was not customary to have printed reports except in unusual cases.

"It's immaterial to me whether it's customary or not," Morse declared. He went on to serve notice on Wiley and all other committee chairmen that he was going to demand full information on all nominations.

"If it's necessary for the junior senator from Oregon to do his committee work on the floor of the Senate, then that's where he intends to do it," Morse said.

Wiley said he realized "that the senator from Oregon should be on the Foreign Relations Committee and every other committee," Morse replied that Wiley was resorting to personal sarcasm.

When the new Senate was organized, the ex-Republican from Oregon, who came out for the election of Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson as President, was bumped from his seat on the Armed Services and Labor Committees and relegated to two minor committees.

Berlin (AP)—Informed Eastern sources said yesterday lack of coal is forcing the Communist East zone to close some of its schools. Other public institutions, including hospitals, have been affected, the informants added.

Authorities Arrest 14 In Swift Move To Wipe Out Narcotics Traffic In California

Los Angeles (AP)—The state's attorney general and other alarmed officials moved swiftly yesterday to root out the tendrils of dope which have crept into such levels of society here as prize fighting, teaching and even baby-sitting.

Fourteen persons were arrested in three raids as state, county and city authorities combined in all-out warfare against narcotics traffic.

Edmund B. Brown, the state attorney general, here from Sacramento for conferences, said he will appeal to U. S. Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell for tighter restrictions at the Mexican border and for the assistance of Mexican officials.

"Most heroin used here comes from Mexico, or from Italy by way of the East Coast," said Brown. "The only way to stop it is to stop it at Mexico. We must spearhead a real program of narcotics enforcement."

Among those arrested was the 14-year-old daughter of a musician who said she worked as a baby-sitter for two years to feed the heroin habit. Officers said she told them she smoked marijuana cigarettes to pass the time while baby sitting.

Clouds Hide Early Phase Of Eclipse

A total eclipse of the moon was partly visible in Monroe County last night—but cloudy skies, light snow and treacherous highways kept most residents away from the big show.

The opening phase of the eclipse began at 3:40 p.m. about an hour and 20 minutes before moonrise. The moon was not completely free of the earth's shadow for several hours.

Heavy overcast put a damper on the view in a triangular area extending from north of Atlantic City to Canada and westward to Buffalo.

Gazers caught only an occasional view of the moon during most of the period although it was visible in the late phases.

But the view was reported clear in some of the Northeast.

The moon is due for another eclipse July 26.

Although the casting of the earth's shadow on the face of the moon may have been the biggest event from the standpoint of an unusual happening, most Monroe Countyans were busily engaged in the routine business of keeping highways open and traffic unobstructed.

A light film of melted snow, which fell throughout the afternoon, was quickly turned to ice as temperatures dipped below the freezing mark shortly after sunset.

Officials at the Day St., East Stroudsburg highway department shed dispatched a total of 15 trucks and 30 men early in the night to make sure all main roads were kept open.

The cinderling crews hit the major highways first, then spread out over secondary roads.

Mount Pocono highway department officials sent out 25 men and five cinderling trucks to take the slippery gloss off of curves and hills.

By 11 last night, all but one crew was back in the Mount Pocono shed.

This one patrol crew was slated to stay on the roads all night, according to officials.

Roads were still reported "very slippery," "hazardous" and "extremely slick" throughout Monroe and Pike Counties late last night.

Two accidents were investigated by Stroudsburg borough police early last night—both due to icy roads. No other accidents had been reported as a result of slippery conditions, however, at 11 p.m.

Last Of Gotham Bus Strikes End

New York (AP)—The last of eight struck private bus lines agreed to arbitration yesterday and the biggest bus strike in New York's history came to an end. It lasted 29 days.

Some buses began rolling yesterday, although full service is not expected until today. State inspectors must okay each bus before it can be put back into service.

Fifth Avenue still was without buses, giving cab drivers and private motorists another day of grace before jams springs into existence again.

"Operation Smack" Incident Causes Uproar In Congress

U. N. Identifies Ill-Fated Division As U. S. Seventh

Tokyo (AP)—The United Nations Command today disclosed that the U. S. Seventh Division carried out the ill-fated Operation Smack in Korea which has drawn congressional fire.

The operation was named Smack because commanders were convinced that the air and artillery support literally would smack the Communists to smithereens during an assault on Little Spud Hill on the West-Central Front.

Criticism of the operation as a staged scenario mounted in Congress yesterday and spread abroad.

Identification of the Seventh Division as the participating division was permitted by censors to allow publication of photographs of the program of the operation plan which was given to visiting generals and correspondents before the start of the raid.

Chinese defenders stayed deep in their bunkers during the Allied artillery and air pounding. Then when Seventh Division troops moved up the hill to within 15 yards of the crest, the Reds sprang out of their holes and stopped the assault cold with deadly machine-gun crossfire and hand grenades.

Little Spud Hill is near famed T-Bone Hill, about 12 miles southwest of Chorwon.

The commander of the operation said it never was aimed at taking the hill. He called it a strong probe to show the type of fighting and casualties the United Nations forces might face if they launched an all-out frontal offensive against the strongly fortified Chinese and Korean Communists.

Wheat Deals Under Attack In Congress

Washington (AP)—Sen. Welker (R-Idaho) said yesterday that crooks appear to be at work "somewhere along the line" in big wheat deals involving Canadian grain labeled unfit for human consumption.

Senate investigators received testimony that large quantities of such Canadian wheat have been imported, mixed with high grade American wheat or milled with domestic flour and resold in this country and abroad.

Although an official said there is nothing illegal about mixing the wheat with high grade grain, the Justice Department said the wheat transactions are being referred to U. S. attorneys in the field for study.

Employees Ask Slowdown Of Loyalty Check

United Nations, N. Y. (AP)—The staff council representing all U. N. employees decided yesterday at a special meeting to urge a slowdown in the million dollar loyalty investigation of American U. N. employees.

The 40-member international council adopted two resolutions, persons who were present said.

One—Asked more time for Americans to fill out the lengthy questionnaire covering the answers to their lives since 1930.

Two—Expressed regret that Secretary General Trygve Lie had not consulted with the council before agreeing to co-operate with the U. S. inquiry.

This was the first rumble of protest from the U. N.'s international staff of 3,000 about the investigation of Americans.

Mother Accused Of Trying To Suffocate Tots

Clefield (AP)—A 21-year-old DuBois mother was in Clefield County jail yesterday, charged with attempting to suffocate her two infants.

Mrs. Nancy Gearhart was found with her children in her gas-filled home. DuBois police said they found a suicide note citing domestic troubles. At a hearing before Alderman M. I. Edner, Mrs. Gearhart said she did not intend to do harm. She said she wanted to frighten someone.

Investigators Of Ship Fire See Possibility Of Sabotage

Southampton, Eng. (AP)—Grave suspicions of sabotage—possibly by political fanatics bent on upsetting coronation year plans—attended the probe by Scotland Yard detectives yesterday of a mystery fire on the liner Queen Elizabeth.

Security guards were doubled last night on the 83,673-ton Queen Elizabeth and on two other liners berthed nearby—the 22,608-ton Alcantara of the South American run and the 22,443-ton troopship Asturias.

All cabins in the Queen Elizabeth were being cleared of blankets and all other inflammable materials. Work went ahead on overhauling the pride of Britain's merchant fleet in drydock here so she can be put back on the North Atlantic run Feb. 11 as scheduled.

Scotland Yard underscored the seriousness of the blaze that seared a main-deck Wednesday night by sending two top arson experts to look for clues. Laboratory Director L. C. Nicholls and Detective Chief Inspector George E. Salter led the hunt. Photographs were taken.

Quick work by the ship's fire patrol confined the blaze to the portside M-93 cabin and the loss was relatively light, though the flames were brought under control only after a stiff half hour battle. About 50 workmen were aboard at the time.

Even as the investigation went into high gear, another fire scare came when a pile of workmen's cotton waste rags burst into flames below on "C" deck. The fire patrol speedily put out the blaze with hand extinguishers.

Only three days before another luxury liner, the five million dollar Empress of Canada, was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin while being refitted in drydock at Liverpool for the tourist rush expected to precede the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II June 2.

The Elizabeth fire closely paralleled three mystery fires aboard the Queen Mary, her sister ship, when the Queen Mary was in dock last month.

Stark Fear Driving Germans Homeless

Berlin (AP)—Stark fear alone is driving many East Germans from their homes of a life-time to the restricted freedom of West Berlin. Thousands mill anxiously in the refugee camps.

No pogroms have begun in the Communist-ruled East. The Red government's purges so far have not struck deeply and directly among the people. No mass measures have yet been taken.

But fear lives with the people. It sharpened this year to a bright edge and swelled the flow of men, women and children running from what may happen.

'Scenario' Staging Of Raid Blasted

Washington (AP)—Congressional ire exploded yesterday over the reported "scenario" staging of an ill-fated American combat raid in Korea last Sunday in which invited generals watched the attack with the aid of gay-colored programs.

Rep. Hoffman (R-Mich.) angrily compared the incident—known as "Operation Smack"—with historical episodes of gladiators fighting to the death for the amusement of ancient Roman emperors.

Rep. Bray (R-Ind.) said he was "mad as hell" about it.

Rep. Edith Nourse Rogers (R-Mass.), chairman of the House Veterans Committee, told the House she was "shocked."

In Korea, U. S. military authorities expressed surprise and dismay over the storm of criticism erupting on the home front. They denied it was a "show" put on to please top brass, and insisted that high-ranking officers frequently witness such attacks to learn combat lessons.

Meanwhile, the uproar spread abroad. In London, a Laborite member of Parliament, Ernest Fernyhough, said he would ask Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden to explain why the attack was put on with "all the trappings of a theatrical performance."

Fernyhough said he would ask Eden to lodge a complaint with the United Nations "over the levity displayed with regard to a battle in which U. N. forces suffered many casualties."

On Capitol Hill, chairman Short (R-Mo.) of the House Armed Services Committee said he had sent word through channels to Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Army chief of staff, asking him to explain to Congress just what happened.

Short said he may ask Collins to testify at an open hearing next Monday or Tuesday.

"It is inconceivable to me that military leaders would uselessly sacrifice human lives," Short told the House. "In any event, we will get the true story when Gen. Collins returns."

Collins is now in the Far East on an inspection trip in Korea and Northern Japan. He is expected back Saturday night.

Short said he doubted seriously that "Operation Smack" was a staged show, declaring:

"I think this was an actual operation, not a circus. When in doubt, we should give the benefit of the doubt to the field commander."

Associated Press Correspondent Forrest Edwards, who covered the attack, commented:

"Except for a nicer cardboard cover than usual, there was nothing at all unusual about the operational plan. The seven pages of mimeographed itinerary for the raid was the same form of operational planning that is drawn up for every action along the front, no matter how big or small it may be."

Edwards said he had seen similar plans even for eight-men patrols.

"Such planning and committing it to paper is merely to insure that no one's memory will fail at a critical time, adding danger to the always dangerous work of fighting the enemy," he said.

Patrol Clashes Dot Battlefront

Seoul (AP)—Patrol skirmishes scattered fitfully last night in zero cold across the 155-mile Korean battlefront.

An Allied patrol clashed with 30 Chinese northwest of Korangpo in a 90-minute fight and estimated it killed half of the Reds.

Allied defenders on Little Nori Hill northwest of Yonchon, also in the West, drove off a raiding Chinese platoon in 20 minutes.

An Eighth Army staff officer reported actions also southwest of Kumsong on the Central Front and in the East.

Firemen To Worship At Tannersville

Tannersville—Edward Metzger, chief of the Pocono Township Volunteer Fire Co., announced last night the members of the company will attend divine services at Grace Evangelical and Reformed Church here Sunday morning.

Chief Metzger said the firemen were to meet at the fire hall at 7:15 and proceed to the church in a body. Rev. William Foose, pastor of the church, will bring the message.

Chief Metzger said bids for a chassis for the 1,000-gallon water truck of the company will be opened at the meeting of the company next Wednesday night.

Coming Events Arranged By Fellowship

Cherry Valley—Arrangements for a Valentine's Day party on Feb. 14 were completed here this week by the Youth Fellowship of the Methodist Church meeting at the home of Joan Armitage.

Committees named to arrange for the affair include Grace Hagerman, chairman; John Dennis and Verna Blakeslee, refreshments; Howard Blakeslee, chairman, Miss Armitage, Jeanne Poorstra and Mrs. Clyde Levergood, games; Verna Blakeslee, chairman, Sam Blakeslee, Miss Armitage, Monica Body and Martha Haney, decorations.

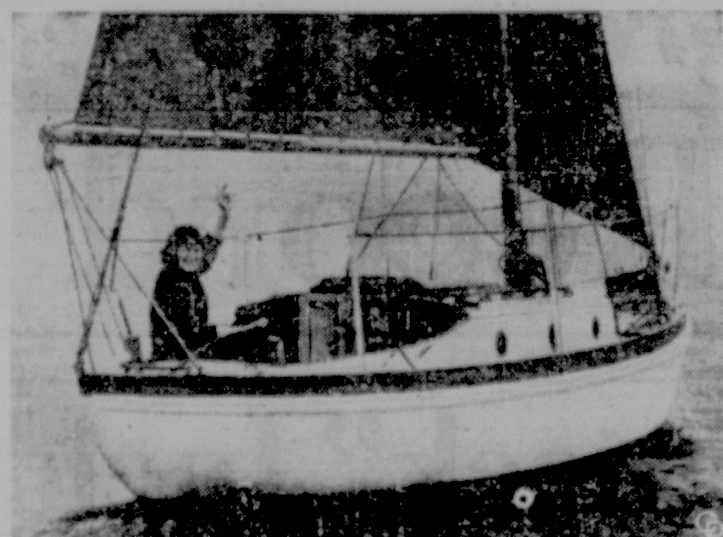

Members decided to place carillon bells in the church and planned two film showings to help defray the costs. Film presentations include "The Upper Room" and "Betrayal in Gethsemane" to be shown in the church Tuesday, Feb. 2, at 8 p.m.

Members also scheduled a bake sale for Wyckoff's Store Feb. 28 at 9:30 a.m. It was announced that tickets for a roller skating party at Stroud Roller Rink Feb. 16 will go on sale Feb. 1.

Joan Armitage, chairman, Verna and Howard Blakeslee and Shirley Stout were named to secure ideas for a booth festival at the next rally. They also voted to have a membership campaign and divided the membership into two teams. One group will be captained by Verna Blakeslee while the second team will be headed by Miss Armitage. Winners will be dinner guests of the losers.

Reports were given by Grace Hagerman, secretary. Devotions were led by Miss Armitage. Following the meeting games were played and refreshments served. Next session is scheduled for the Blakeslee home Feb. 14 at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. David G. Peilly's office will be closed Jan. 30th to Feb. 9th inclusive.—Adv.

She vowed she would make the crossing alone.

FFA Chapters To Compete In Contests, Sports Events

Kresgeville—An Area Future Farmers of America meeting was held this week at Polk Township High School with 50 members in attendance.

President Donald Mack was in charge of the meeting. Other officers taking part included Alton Kleintop, acting vice president; Robert Fields, secretary; Allen Hower, acting treasurer and Neal Murphy, reporter.

Reports on local activities were made by chapter representatives with Robert Fields, delegate to the State association reporting on that organization's meeting at Harrisburg during the Farm Show.

Fields reported that an honorary Keystone Farmer Degree was conferred on County Superintendent of Schools John C. Litts and that 12 boys from this area received the Keystone Farmer Degree in ceremonies during that meeting.

Arrangements were made for sports activities during the year which will include basketball games between some chapters and a volleyball tournament.

The area rifle tournament was scheduled for March; public speaking and parliamentary competitions will be held in April and the annual tractor driving contest will take place in May, it was decided at the meeting.

Colored slides on the National FFA Convention in Kansas City were shown by Wilmer B. Frisbie, county adviser.

Teachers attending the meeting were Frank Varney, Chestnut Hill; John Montgomery, Pocono; Clifford Stroud, Polk; Elmer Veety, Stroudsburg; George Ott, Bangor; and Theodore Hoffman, Pen Argil. The host chapter served sandwiches, cake and soda for refreshments.

Bill Freeland To Speak At Youth Rally Saturday

The next meeting of Youth For Christ will be held Saturday at 8 p.m. in the First Baptist Church, East Stroudsburg.

Bill Freeland, director of North Penn Youth for Christ and manager of Freeland Screw Products Co., will be song leader and speaker at the rally. A group of young people will come up with Mr. Freeland early to take in some ice skating at the Promised Land Lake. The North Penn group will assist the YFC choir in special music. Freeland spoke here at a YFC rally.

December saw the opening of a new phase of ministry for Youth For Christ International's first vice president, Billy Graham (just back from Korea). A daily series of columns is now syndicated throughout the United States.

Everyone is invited to attend the local rallies.

C'mon, Joe—there goes the siren!

When fires break out, Pennsylvania's volunteer fire companies do a marvelous job of alerting their members. In many cases, by siren signals, they even broadcast the location of the fire so that fire-fighters can get there faster.

But—how does news of the fire reach the firehouse?

Most of the time it's by telephone . . . by the same dependable line of communication that's used millions of times a day for messages of all kinds, urgent and otherwise. Firefighters, like almost everyone else, take good dependable telephone service for granted. That's the way telephone men and women want it to be. And they're on the job, night and day, to keep it that way.

Three Hurt In Collision On Icy Hill

Three New York City residents were slightly injured at 6 o'clock last night when a trailer-truck jackknifed on icy Foxtown Hill.

Stroudsburg borough police investigated the accident and revealed the following details:

A truck-trailer, driven by Don C. Weaver, 30, of Lock Haven, Pa., and a station wagon operated by Valeria Kashtik Cherni, 42, of Madison Ave., New York City, were traveling down Foxtown Hill. Police said the rear end of the trailer struck a patch of ice, swerved around, causing the vehicle to jackknife.

In so doing, police said, the truck hit the Cherni car and a second vehicle operated by Ira M. Lieberman, 32, of the Bronx, New York City, which was going up the hill.

As a result of the accident, Lieberman received slight injuries to his kneecap, left hand and left thumb; Max Dick, 60, suffered a slight bump on the head and Shirley Cavolina, 27, both of the Bronx, received a cut on the left leg and small bruises.

All three were treated by Dr. Marshall Metzgar.

The passengers in the Cherni vehicle and the driver of the truck were not injured, police said.

The Cherni station wagon was damaged on the rear fender and bumper. Lieberman's car was extensively damaged in the front.

The Foxtown Hill accident was the second to occur on slippery borough streets in a matter of minutes early last night.

At 5:40 p.m. a car operated by William D. Mumbauer, 39, of 1053 Dreher Ave., Stroudsburg, skidded into the rear of a sedan driven by Kathryn Metzgar, 28, of Stroudsburg RD3, in front of 1165 W. Main St.

Both cars were traveling west on the street. Icy conditions apparently prevented Mumbauer from making the stop in time, police indicated.

Damages were limited to the Mumbauer vehicle. No one was injured.

Stroudsburg Patrolman William Coolbaugh investigated both accidents.

Properties In Townships Transferred

William Henry Smith, of Tobyhanna Township, filed a deed at the office of Floyd Butz, register and recorder at the Court House, yesterday for transfer of a property to Cortez O. Smith. The property is located on the Sullivan Rd. leading from Locust Ridge to Thornhurst and includes 36.6 acres of land.

In another transaction, Mr. and Mrs. William Carlin, of Jackson Township, transferred a property and 15.7 acres of land to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, also of Jackson. It adjoins lands of Alex Stoltz, Millie Tiech and Lillie Greenberg. Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Salerni, of Mount Pocono, by their deed disposed of a tract in Stroud Township, on the public road leading from Stroudsburg to Ananokink, to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Custard, of Stroud Township.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Vance, of Paradise, sold to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Leies, of Port Washington, N. Y., a property in Paradise Township on the public road leading from Swiftwater to Paradise Valley including 58.8 acres of land.

Met Selects Waring Aide To Direct Two Operas On Television Next Month

Bob Banner—the youthful, unassuming director of the Fred Waring television program—has been chosen by the Metropolitan Opera Association to direct the two operas this distinguished company will present on TV in February.

Not only that, but the Metropolitan deliberately reshuffled its schedule to make Banner's appearance as director of the two programs possible.

Paul Drury On Special Assignment

Paul R. Drury, assistant forester with the Department of Forests and waters, 1081 W. Main St., Stroudsburg, has been transferred temporarily to Renovo, Clinton County for special work this winter in compiling data on harvesting and forest management plans on the State Forests in that district. While there, he will be under the direction of District Forester Paul W. Duck.

Mr. Drury has been in the local district for the past three years with the exception of special temporary assignments. While here, he has specialized in woodlot management practices, especially on private lands. This consisted primarily of giving advice in woodlot cutting practices as well as on reforestation, disease and insect control.

He is expected to return to this district by the spring forest fire season.

Musical Program Given At Church

Saylorburg—Piano, voice and organ artists and pupils performed at St. Peter's Evangelical United Brethren Church here this week. Prelude was by Weldon Reilly, of Easton, and invocation was by Rev. Joseph Good, of Bangor. An organ-piano duet featured Sue Krash and Joan Borders; vocal solos by Frank Washburn, accompanied by Reilly; organ solos by Lucy Warner and Lois Howell and piano-organ duets by Leon Stern and Reilly, contributed to the program. Postlude was by Lucy Warner, organist. Benediction was given by Rev. Harold L. Ulmer, pastor.

VFW Teams To Compete

Thomas P. Lambert Post No. 3240, Veterans of Foreign Wars, launched its campaign for 1,000 members at a kickoff meeting last night. Chairman Larry Zaccaro presided.

Two teams were formed to engage in a contest for new members. The team captains are Charles Nevil and Edward Tweedie. April 1 is the deadline for the campaign. Members may be re-instated by payment of current year's dues.

The losing team will furnish a dinner for the members of the winning aggregation.

Arthur Heller was assigned to take charge of the campaign in Delaware Water Gap, Zaccaro said.

The post now has a total membership of 700. One of the factors in the campaign for 1,000 members is in support of Elmer D. Christine, state vice commander, who will be a candidate for department commander at the annual meeting in Philadelphia in July.

The next meeting of the committee will be held at the post home Thursday, Feb. 12.

Basketball Team Reports Theft

Bruce Possinger, of East Stroudsburg, manager of Frank's Barbers basketball team, reported to Easton police yesterday that members of his team had been robbed while playing the Weston Club cagers at Shull Junior High School, that city, Wednesday night.

Possinger said last night that a pen and pencil set, $2.70 in cash and papers belonging to his team members had been stolen from a locker at the school during the game.

The first Waring Music Workshop at "Shawnee-on-Delaware" in 1947.

From his early experience with the workshop, Banner went to Chicago where he became associated with the so-called "Chicago school" of television which gave birth to such critically successful and popular programs as "Kukla, Fran and Ollie" and the "Garraway Show."

Banner served as director for the Garraway program many months before moving on to New York and his position with the Waring organization.

Altmore's Barn Burns At Effort

Effort — High winds lashed at a flaming barn here this week, destroying the structure owned by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Altmore. A nearby garage and the home of Mr. and Mrs. Altmore were endangered but firemen from Brodheadville confined the blaze. The fire, which occurred at 8:30 p.m., was of unknown origin. Damage was reported extensive.

Polio Fund To Benefit From Dance

Joseph H. Small, chairman of the March of Dimes polio drive in Monroe County, said last night that all arrangements had been completed for the square dance at the Elks Club Saturday night.

Indications, he said, pointed to an unusually large attendance at the dance. The Elks lodge will bear the expense of the orchestra, which means the entire receipts will go to the polio fund.

Arch Possinger, square dance caller, will furnish his services free.

The dance will get under way at 10 p.m. and continue until 2 a.m. Small urged all lovers of the dance to support the polio drive by their presence.

Driver Placed Under Arrest

Bushkill—A Clinton County, Pa. truck driver was arrested yesterday on charges of "following too closely" after his vehicle crashed into a car operated by Fred Ladlee, 48, Bushkill mechanic.

Arrested by State police trooper Don Henzey of the Stroudsburg sub-station was John I. Rossman, 31, of Salona, Pa.

State police said Rossman's truck struck the rear of Ladlee's car on Route 209 near Bushkill causing $200 damages to the car. The truck was not damaged.

Ladlee was treated for a bruised left arm and shock by his family physician.

Information against Rossman will be filed with Justice of the Peace Richard T. Hickman, Middle Smithfield Township, State police said last night.

Former Columbia Resident Dies

Mrs. Margaret Kitchen, 79, former resident of Columbia, N. J., died Tuesday at the home of her son, Walter Kitchen, Parsippany, N. J.

Mrs. Kitchen was born in Columbia, daughter of the late John and Martha Johnson. Gardner, widow of Simon Kitchen, she lived practically all her life in the community. She was a member of the Columbia Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held at the Morton funeral home, Johnsonville, Saturday at 2 p.m. Rev. Wesley Sheffield, pastor of the Columbia and Hainesville Methodist charge, will officiate. Interment will be in the Fairview Cemetery, Columbia.

Metal Falls On Worker, Fractures Toe

Four persons were treated for injuries Wednesday in the dispensary at Monroe County General Hospital. They were:
Margaret Hagerty, of 111 N. Ninth St., Stroudsburg, who dropped a heavy piece of metal on her foot while working at Art Metal Co. plant, East Stroudsburg. She suffered a fracture of the left great toe.

David Swank, of 37 N. Green St., East Stroudsburg, received contusion and a sprain of the right foot and ankle. Working for Johnson, Drake and Pipher Co., construction firm at the Delaware Water Gap, Swank was hit on the ankle by the end of a heavy piece of lumber.

A fractured right ankle was suffered by Edward Antell, of Onawa Lodge, Mountaintown. Antell received the injury while ice skating.

Claude Possinger, 39, of Stroudsburg RD3, received a laceration of the scalp, contusion of the chest and mild concussion in an automobile accident.

PP&L To Buy Area Utility

Scranton, Pa.—The Pennsylvania Power and Light Co. announced yesterday it will take over control of the Scranton Electric Co., subject to the approval of stockholders of both firms and the state Public Utility Commission.

Scranton Electric serves some 102,000 customers in Scranton and Lackawanna County. It also operates the Abington Electric Co., which supplies power to Clarks Summit, Clarks Green and other parts of the Abingtons. It reported net income of $1,703,373 last year.

Charles E. Oakes, president of PP&L, and C. F. Nagle, president of Scranton Electric, announced a proposal under which the Scranton stockholders would exchange all outstanding stock for shares of PP&L stock.

The basis will be one share of PP&L common for two shares of Scranton common; one share PP&L 4.40% preferred for each share Scranton 4.40%; three quarters share PP&L 4½% preferred or two shares common for each share Scranton 3.35% preferred.

Businessmen's Association Presses Drive For Members

A committee of Stroudsburg business men met at the E. A. Bel offices Wednesday night to plan for the meeting of the association on Monday, Feb. 2. Present at the meeting were Harry Albert, E. Holt Wyckoff, Burton George, Donald Holmgren and Arthur A. Widmer.

It was decided to launch a campaign for new members. Believing that Stroudsburg can be made a better town in which to live, work and shop, all retailers and professional men will be asked to become members of the association.

Definite projects were discussed and it was planned to make Christmas lights and the parking problem definite goals for the association to work on in 1953. Ted Getz, newly elected president of the Stroudsburg Business Men's Association, urged that all retailers and others who are interested in working together for a better Stroudsburg, plan to be at the dinner meeting Monday at 6:30 p.m. at the Indian Queen Hotel.

IKE'S CABINET-The Job and the Man

6---Interior Secretary Douglas McKay

Department of the Interior is the center for conservation of nation's resources.

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the sixth of a series of nine articles written for Central Press and this newspaper.

Washington — Douglas McKay, Oregon's governor, was picked by President Eisenhower for secretary of the interior—the executive department concerned primarily with the conservation, management and development of the nation's natural resources.

When Interior celebrated its centenary in 1949 it gave this explanation of its 100 years of service: "Concerned primarily with the domestic needs of the American people, the department has been responsible chiefly for the supervision and conservation of the vast resources of land, water and minerals which have enabled the nation to develop a dynamic and expanding economy. It was with this major function in mind that the theme adopted for the centennial of the department has been 'A Century of Conservation.'"

Interior's scope of activities cover the entire continental United States and the territories. This means that land and people in the Arctic Circle, the South Pacific, and Caribbean islands are under Interior's jurisdiction.

Some 750 million acres of public lands are in its custody. Gigantic reclamation projects in 17 western states are results of its efforts. Interior is guardian to 475,000 Indians and Eskimos, and is responsible for the welfare of three million territorial and island peoples. Besides the office of secretary, Interior's 63,841 employees are assigned to some 18 bureaus and agencies. McKay will administer this vast organization.

The Bureau of Reclamation has developed projects that have converted more than six million acres of western desert into farm land whose crop value already exceeds $700 million.

The Bureau of Fish and Wild Life is devoted to conserving wild life and promoting constructive public use of wild life resources.

The Geological Survey carries on research on our mineral, water and land resources.

The National Park Service administers all national parks, monuments and historic sites and buildings.

Three power administrations—Bonneville, Southwestern and Southeastern—are concerned with hydro power in their regions. Interior's office of territories is responsible for promoting "economic, political and social development of the territorial, trusteeship, and de-

McKay has demonstrated much interest in the planning, development, and conservation of Oregon's natural resources. He was born in Portland in 1893 and specialized in agriculture at Oregon State college.

In World War I McKay was wounded in the famous Meuse-Argonne offensive. He served again in World War II as an Army officer. After World War I he became an automobile salesman, and in 1927 established his own automobile sales business at Salem.

In politics McKay served as mayor of Salem, as state senator and two terms as governor. Since 1950 he has served as chairman of the Western Governors' Conference.

Kidney Slow-Down May Bring Restless Nights

When kidney function slows down, many folks complain of nagging backache, headaches, dizziness and loss of pep and energy. Don't suffer restless nights with these discomforts if reduced kidney function is getting you down—due to such common causes as stress and strain, over-exertion or exposure to cold. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Tread Lightly—Proud Foot!

That's a mighty proud foot you see there. It's resting on the accelerator of a gorgeous 1953 Cadillac.

But we have a serious and timely warning for that proud and happy foot: Tread lightly!

Down under that accelerator is a dynamic 210-horsepower engine—coupled with the smoothest, quickest-acting Hydra-Matic Drive in history.

That great power was put there for the driver's safety in an emergency—and to provide that smooth, effortless, steady ride which is the essence of luxurious motoring.

It was not put there to enable a Cadillac to dominate the highway—or to dash out into the lead when the traffic light turns green—or to out-manuever the other motor cars on the road.

So don't ever exhaust that accelerator—unless you're in an emergency, and must do so for reasons of safety.

If other drivers covet the honors at the stop light—just let them go. They are first away by your courtesy—and that should be satisfaction enough for anybody.

Just be happy and satisfied with the great luxury this powerful engine brings you—the infinitely smooth, quiet performance . . . the quick "lift" that comes when you nudge the accelerator . . . the great reserve for a burst ahead in case of necessity

And be happy, as you can't help being, with the scores of other wonderful things about this magnificent car—its easy, relaxing ride, for instance . . . its distinguished and inspiring beauty . . . its rich, luxurious interiors . . . its honored and respected name . . . and its truly amazing economy.

Yes—there is so much about a Cadillac to inspire and delight its owner that he doesn't need the additional thrill of unleashing its spectacular performance when it isn't necessary.

That's why we know he'll "Tread lightly!" He isn't in competition with anyone.

Twin City Television Co. Partnership Is Dissolved

By James B. Gaffney

Dissolution of partnership in the Twin City TV Co. was announced this week.

The action leaves Ernest R. Fellencer as sole owner of the concern, Kenneth W. Kruse, former partner, will remain with Fellencer as sales and service man.

James B. Gaffney

Twin City was established four years ago while Fellencer was in the feed and grain business at 1186 W. Main St., Stroudsburg. The television and electric appliance shop still is located at that address and all business stems from there.

Before entering the feed business about nine years ago Fellencer was a salesman for several automotive firms in the Stroudsburg. He has lived at the same address for 38 years.

With four popular name television franchises Twin City is expecting the appointment as factory service center for Sylvania, Inc. and the assignment will mark one of the few such places in this section of the state, Fellencer said.

This week Fellencer also received the franchise as Norge dealer and will add this electric concern to his other lines of appliances and refrigeration equipment.

Two trucks are used by Twin City to install and service TV sets throughout the county and surrounding environs. "Last year we serviced about 2,000 sets," Fellencer said "and in 1951 and 1952 were recognized as tops of 32 dealers in this entire area in sales."

Working with Fellencer is his wife, Marguerite who is bookkeeper for the firm. Vito Casella, of Tannersville, a graduate of the Pennsylvania Radio and Television Institute at Scranton, is Fellencer's head technician. Working as an apprentice technician is a Pocono Township High School senior, Bobby Cyphers. He expects to enter Drexel in September to study electronic engineering.

In addition to Kruse, Paul Bartholomew is on the sales staff. Installation men are Jack Rode and Torgi Wold.

The "fingers-crossed" method of mixing paints for special colors no longer exists since introduction of a new machine which automatically measures the various colors and accurately comes up with the right amount.

The Paint Service Center at 517 Main St., Stroudsburg, now has the color key which custom mixes paints and also has the book system which gives customers 350 colors to select from. This book also shows the combination of colors best fitted for matching, making it easy for the hesitant buyer to decide which colors will blend with the main scheme.

Using flat, semi-gloss, high-gloss and satin finishes, the machine is hand operated but its accompanying chart has all the movements recorded. Once the combination of paints is poured into the main vat, a paint conditioner (machine which shakes and mixes the paint) is put to work and the unusual blend is complete.

Paint Service Center is operated by Curt Muller and his son, John. They established the store here four and a half years ago coming here from Point Pleasant, Pa. where they were in the building business.

Sears and Roebuck store in Stroudsburg currently is preparing with the firm's other stores across the nation to commemorate the 25th anniversary of its merchandise manager, T. V. Houser.

Special promotions are in the offing. Henry Kresge, local manager, said yesterday.

Houser's fellow associates who have been with Sears 25 years or more also will be the honored guests for year-round activities within each store. Joining with them will be the Stroudsburg store which opened Nov. 1933. There are no local employees on the staff with 25 years service to Sears, however. Kresge has the longest tenure: 20 years.

Artist's concept of a "death ray" in action.

Russian 'Death Ray' Emerges As Newest Nightmare Weapon

By Franklin Johnson

Washington—In the great super-arms duel between east and west, has Russia successfully added the "death ray" to its growing arsenal?

Reports that Allied intelligence officers recently learned that the Reds have the first 140 projectors that cause planes several miles away to burst into flame are stirring some quarters here.

The "death ray" has been a favorite weapons myth since post-World War I days. Before the advent of the atomic bomb made wholesale destruction a grim reality, science fiction writers had a field day predicting what a "death ray" might do.

Although the current report sounds like another fantastic Soviet claim, the possibility that East German scientists are working on the device is not discounted. Some scientific quarters consider the "death ray" a thoroughly practical device.

High frequency sound waves currently are considered the best "fuel" for such a ray, and work is pushing forward in a number of United States and British laboratories along this line. Their deadly potentials have been convincingly demonstrated on small animals and insects.

Engineers at the General Electric company have perfected a device which produces sound waves at 100 million per second, and predict that it will be useful in detecting flaws in steel.

Showing the "death ray" possibilities, John W. Butterworth, director of hyperphonics for the Brush Development company, last fall told the Fifth National Instrument conference in a scientific paper which received little notice that with vibrations of one million times a second, diamonds and hard steel are shattered.

Butterworth said that stresses may be set up in a material equal to 1,500,000 times the pull of gravity and it is shaken apart.

These "sounds" are much higher than the human ear can register, and many scientists believe them to be capable of killing any living thing in their path.

A British engineer, J. M. Symes, has been claiming for several years that he has a device which could annihilate whole armies with sounds so high-pitched no one would hear them before the blood corpuscles were disintegrated. "Death would come to them so suddenly they would know nothing about it at all," he adds grimly.

The scientific basis for this claim is disquieting, to say the least. Dr. Julia F. Herrick of the Mayo Foundation in Rochester, Minn., reports that in laboratory tests supersonic rays have torn animal tissues to pieces and raised the body temperature to as high as 140 degrees.

A practical twist to these possibilities have been probed by U. S. Department of Agriculture engineers at Beltsville, Md., where such beams are being turned on vegetable and fruit pests.

Showing the far-flung nature of these experiments, at Penn State college white mice have been killed by high frequency sound waves such as those generated by jet engines of airplanes, and Dr. Horace O. Parrack of the U. S. Air Force Medical laboratory has disclosed that rats and guinea pigs have been killed almost instantly by low power supersonic beams that do not seem to bother man.

The normal sound ranges are from 250 to 2,000 cycles a second, and people are seldom able to hear even 10,000 cycle noises. In General Electric laboratories they have been doing tricks with a simple apparatus consisting of an ordinary headlight reflector which focuses the high-pitched sound of a one-inch long whistle.

Generating 25,000 cycles a second, the gadget will ignite cotton held at the focal point, suspend a cork in mid-air, and scramble an egg without breaking the shell. "Death ray" speculations after World War I almost always envisaged light rays, and the Russian reports which attribute manufacture of the first projectors to the Communist-controlled Zeiss Optical Works at Jena raise this possibility again.

However, scientists are inclined to believe that if there is any basis in fact for accounts that eye-witnesses saw radio-controlled Russian aircraft burst into flames and break up as they flew into the range of the "death ray" projectors, they should be credited to supersonic devices.

The practicality of beaming rays great distances has been demonstrated by radar, which now has been bounced off the moon. So the supersonic death ray emerges as the next weapons' nightmare.

Fluoride Test Shows Cavity Rate Reduced

Marshall, Tex. (AP)—A six-year experiment in this East Texas city was cited as proof that fluoride in drinking water can drastically reduce dental cavities.

The test was one of the most carefully controlled experiments in modern dental research. Both the American Medical Association and the American Dental Association co-operated.

X-rays of continuous - resident six year olds here, compared with those in another Texas community without fluoride, showed:

One—The Marshall children have 57 per cent fewer cavities than those of the same age group in the other city—Jacksonville, Tex., 70 miles away.

Two—More than 35 per cent of the Marshall six year olds have no cavities whatever. Only 13 per cent of Jacksonville's are cavity-free.

Three—The cavity rate among Marshall children is declining steadily. Cavities among Jacksonville children, in most years during the period, showed an increase.

Dr. Edward Taylor, head of the Texas State Health Department's Dental Division, announced results of the six-year test Thursday at a meeting of civic clubs in this city of about 23,000 people.

Now 460 U.S. cities put fluoride in their water. The American Dental Association says many more are preparing to do so. Other test cities dot the nation from coast to coast. In Chicago, the National Congress of Parents and Teachers asked its local groups across the nation to promote fluoridation of community water supplies.

In Marshall, six-year-olds nonchalantly pop their bubblegum between the finest teeth in East Texas. Many will never know the pain of a dentist's drill—or a dentist's bill.

State Offers Trees, Shrubs To Residents Of District

E. C. Pyle, district forester, Delaware District, Department of Forests and Waters, yesterday advised those planning to plant trees and shrubbery this Spring to place their orders promptly.

Pyle said the Department of Forests and Waters expects to have a choice selection of trees. Species available include red pine, white pine, Norway spruce, white spruce, hemlock, larch, black locust, sugar maple, red oak along with seven other desirable species.

Trees secured from the Commonwealth must be used for the growing of timber products, Pyle said. The law prohibits the use of such trees for ornamental planting or for use or sale as Christmas trees.

Wildlife shrubs and vines which are available include bittersweet, multiflora rose, dogwood, wild plum, wild crabapple, bayberry and 22 other species, it was announced.

Multiflora rose makes an excellent living fence, the department points out and at the same time provides food and cover for game. Some of the shrubs and vines have fruits that last well into the winter to feed quail and brood of ring-neck pheasants.

Pyle said the trees, shrubs and vines are reserved in the order in which applications are received. Trees must be ordered on Nursery Stock Application form FWFE-5 and shrubs and vines on Form FWFE-5a. Forms or additional information are available by contacting the Department of Forests and Waters, 1081 W. Main St., Stroudsburg, Pyle said.

India has about 10 million Christians, one of many minority religious groups, and Christmas has been chosen as a national holiday in deference to the Christians just as other holidays are observed on a national basis in deference to other religious groups.

Nevil Funeral Rites Conducted

Funeral services for George W. Nevil, 82, were conducted at the late home, 202 N. Ninth St., at 2 p.m. yesterday. Rev. Dr. P. N. Wohlson, pastor of St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church, officiated.

Interment was in Stroudsburg Cemetery. Pallbearers were: Clarence S. Kitchen, James A. Somers, Evan S. Kintz, Charles Overbeck, Herbert Bellaires and Charles A. Kelper.

Members of the Stroudsburg Fire Dept. paid their respects Wednesday night. Mr. Nevil was the oldest member of Phoenix Fire Co. No. 2, Dunkelberger and Westbrook had charge of arrangements.

Shirley Ross, R. Johnson Are Married

Anatomink—Miss Shirley Ross, of Anatomink, became the bride of Robert Johnson, also of Anatomink, on Saturday afternoon, January 21, at 2 o'clock.

The wedding was performed by Rev. Ralph Feltham, pastor of the Anatomink Methodist Church, at his home on Prospect St., East Stroudsburg.

The bride wore a suit of brown and white checks with a corsage of white carnations. She was attended by Miss Virginia Nase, Anatomink, who wore a tan suit and wore a corsage of white carnations.

Robert Hay, of Stroudsburg, was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will be at home to their friends in an apartment, 243 Willow St., East Stroudsburg.

Quilting Bees Busy At Ladies Aid Meetings

Saylorsburg—The Ladies Aid Society of Mt. Eaton Church, Saylorsburg, met Thursday for a day of quilting.

The following quilted: Mrs. Bessie Alexander, Mrs. Norman Greenamoyer, Mrs. Ed. Young, Mrs. Sarah Dorshimer, Mrs. Ada Keller, Mrs. Rose Gower, Mrs. Anetta Van Buskirk, Mrs. C. W. Ribow, Mrs. William Faustick, Mrs. James Eckley, Mrs. Claude Eckle, Mrs. John Kostenbader, Mrs. Matthew Kresge, Mrs. Ruth Mackes, Mrs. Oscar Bonser, Mrs. John Gower.

Each member brought her own lunch to eat at noon. Two quilts were worked upon and they stayed late to complete one of them.

Mrs. Ed. Young finished the edge and was ready to start another for the coming week.

Each member was asked to think about making some article to be sold at the bazaar the ladies will hold at the annual picnic during the summer. They plan to quilt each week at the fire hall until spring; anyone is welcome that wants to quilt.

Boy Scouts Entertained By Saylorsburg Lodge

Saylorsburg—Washington Camp No. 327, Saylorsburg, held installation of officers Friday night at the fire hall in Saylorsburg. After the meeting a baked ham supper was served those attending.

The local Boy Scout group, with George Kitchen as leader, met on the first floor of the fire hall the same night and were guests at the lodge supper. Supper was prepared by Mrs. Ed. Young, Mrs. Oscar Bonser and Mrs. John Gower.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

In case you may have been out of touch with current trends in card playing, I can give you the results of a personal and comprehensive survey made last night at the SPCA card party at the Indian Queen Hotel.

Out of all the tables of players, there were only six playing bridge, one pinocchio, one cut-throat pinocchio, and believe it or not, one table of "300." Why I'd almost forgotten about "300." Right or left bowers, I remember, and good practice in arithmetic.

All the rest of the tables were playing canasta or samba. Don't think samba would ever be my game. I can't hold that many cards all at once. However, I was fascinated with Mrs. Mansbach's automatic shuffler—sounded like rain on the roof.

It wasn't though—because when I came out the moon was shining brighter than ever. If you were fanciful you might imagine the eclipse as a sort of oiled dust cloth which some giant hand moved across the face of the moon, wiping off the accumulated dust of the years with one casual sweep.

However, there's one thing that puzzles me. The moon is eclipsed by the shadow of the earth when moon, earth and sun are all on a straight line, right? Well, isn't that the same thing that happens every lunar month—except slower? If so how come during an eclipse, you can accomplish as much in a few hours as takes a whole month the rest of the time?

No, don't tell me. Show me. We'll have this light be the sun and this orange the earth and this apple the moon. Now then—Oh no you don't, just taking a bite out of the apple isn't proving a thing.

Listen To—Bobby Westbrook daily, Monday through Friday, on "The Party Line" WVPO, 10:15 a.m.

Many Support SPCA Shelter Benefit Party

There was an excellent attendance at last night's card party for the benefit of the animal shelter supported by the local Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, held at the Indian Queen Hotel.

Mrs. Francis Brodhead, chairman of the card party committee was well-pleased by the turn-out, and expects others, kept away by the slippery streets, to turn in the money for their tickets just the same.

She was also warm in her appreciation of the cooperation of merchants in donating door prizes, individual table prizes and even the tickets.

Proceeds from the party will be used to improve the shelter for homeless animals on Foxtown Hill.

Girl Scouts Big Week In March Planned

Girl Scout officers are starting early to plan for the celebration of the Girl Scouts 41st birthday on March 12.

The whole week will be marked by special troop programs, window displays, radio skits, and a Birthday Tea to be held on Saturday, March 15, with all Girl Scouts of the county taking part.

Girl Scout week will also mark the end of the Girl Scout cookie sale campaign, which opens February 1. Special emphasis is being placed on the cookie sale this year since half of the profits will be used to reduce money owed on the Girl Scout House. The other half remains with the individual troops for their own projects.

Mrs. Harold C. Edwards, president of the Girl Scout Council, presided at yesterday's committee meeting held at the office of Walter Dreher, public relations chairman of the council.

Mrs. Ruth Heller, president of the Leaders Association announced that the Leaders Association would meet at the Girl Scout House on February 5. At that time the leaders will plan the part their troops will play in the observance of Girl Scout week.

Mrs. Hazel West, acting chairman of the Juliette Low committee, which is in charge of the birthday party, was also present for the meeting. The party this year will mark a departure from the usual rally, and will feature a film on Day Camping, and other activities as well as the ceremony of the presentation of the Juliette Low World Friendship gifts by the troop representatives.

The committee will meet February 12, at the Girl Scout House. Others present for the meeting were Mrs. Lucy Hartman, editor of the monthly News Bag.

The February issue has announced a "Used Uniform Exchange" at the Girl Scout House during the month. Since the troops are anxious to have as many of their members as possible in uniform for the birthday party, girls having outgrown uniforms have been asked to bring them to the Girl Scout House where smaller Girl Scouts may get them.

Mrs. Camille Harvey, executive director, was also present for the planning session.

Sit-Down Strike Started In Harem?

New York (AP)—Women were the first sit-down strikers, says Helga Moray, English movie actress and novelist.

Her new book published here, "Tisa" tells of the strike in the harem of Sultan Barbarossa in 1552. She says she has found old diaries which show that 60 concubines of the sultan locked themselves in when Tisa, his favorite, led a revolt against inhuman treatment by the guards. They killed three guards and stayed locked in their quarters for several weeks before the sultan met their demands.

Beakleyville Guild Party

The Community Guild of the Beakleyville Baptist Church will meet Monday, February 2 at the church for an apron social and Valentine party.

Friends are invited to join the members. Mrs. Harold Miller, Mrs. Martha Smith and Mrs. Ada Porter will serve as hostesses.

Card Party At Mutchler Home

Barrett—The Altar and Rosary Society of St. Ann Church Camdens will hold a card party Friday, Jan. 30, 1:30 at the home of Mrs. Alfred Mutchler.

Refreshments will be served. Last Friday, Jan. 23 a card party was held at the home of the Misses Ann and Rita Farrell, Laurel Pine Road and on Jan. 16 at Mrs. Thomas Somers.

Portland WSCS Meeting

Portland—The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church will meet on Tuesday night at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. R. W. Beseker, of Delaware Ave. Mrs. Emma Ross will be co-hostess. Mrs. Nick Ervey, president, will preside.

Director Of Child Guidance Center To Speak At Open Meeting Of AAUW Monday

An open meeting at the Stroud Community House on Monday night will feature Harold Kolansky, M. D., director of the Monroe-Northampton Child Guidance Center, as a speaker. The Stroudsburg branch of the American Association of University Women have invited Dr. Kolansky to speak on "Understanding Our Child Guidance Center," and are inviting every one, particularly teachers, social workers and parents to attend the meeting.

Dr. Kolansky will speak at the beginning of the meeting, with the business meeting postponed until after his talk and the general discussion.

Dr. Kolansky is a graduate of Georgetown University School of Medicine and served his internship at Walter Reed Army Hospital, as well as psychiatric residency with the Veterans Administration, whose program included the Coatesville Veterans Hospital, Temple University Hospital, Jefferson Medical College and Hospital, and the Growth and Development Clinic at Children's Hospital, Philadelphia.

In addition, Dr. Kolansky served as chief of psychiatric service of the Fourth Field Hospital in Korea during the present war, as instructor in psychiatry at Hahnemann Medical College, and has had several psychiatric publications in medical journals.

The people of Monroe County, through the county sponsorship in the Monroe-Northampton Child Guidance Center, are entitled to use its services, and the meeting has been planned to acquaint the public more fully with what those services are and how they can best be utilized.

Mrs. J. L. Cohen will introduce Dr. Kolansky, and a question period will follow his talk. Dr. Veve Dean, chapter president, will preside at the club business session.

Special Legion Program On TV Sunday Afternoon

Members of local American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary posts have been asked to listen to the special Legion television program on Sunday afternoon at 1:30 inaugurating the "Back to God Crusade."

President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon are scheduled to speak on the non-sectarian religious ceremony. They will be introduced by the national American Legion Commander, Lewis K. Gough. The choir from the U. S. Military Academy at West Point will sing and Morton Downey will read the preamble to the American Legion constitution.

Churchwomen Hear Of Past, Plan Future

The Woman's Auxiliary of the East Stroudsburg Presbyterian Church were given an opportunity to evaluate their progress during the past year as well as a glimpse of the program ahead at the annual covered dish supper held Wednesday night at the church.

Mrs. Nathan Meyer was in charge of the devotions which followed the dinner. The Auxiliary Chorus, composed of Mrs. Jesse Flory, Miss Bess Gardner, Mrs. Edwin C. Hughes, Mrs. Herbert Ruppert, and Mrs. Walter Slough, sang two numbers "I Heard the Voice of Jesus" and "Fairest Lord Jesus". Mrs. Loring Cramer was their accompanist.

During the business session, Mrs. William Crooks, secretary, could point to a substantial gain in membership during the past year. Mrs. James Fisher gave the financial report for the year, and the chairmen of the four circles within the auxiliary reported on the activities of the Dorcas, Esther, Lydia and Mary-Martha Circles.

One of the outstanding reports of the meeting was that of work done by the sewing group, of which Mrs. Milo Singer was chairman. The group met every Wednesday during the entire year to sew not only for local charities but also for foreign and national missions.

Mrs. Jesse Flory, secretary of national missions, reported on the material sent during the past year to mission hospitals; Mrs. T. J. Breitwieser, secretary of social education and action, reported on those activities, and Mrs. Walter Slough, secretary of literature, outlined the current literature available for study.

Mrs. A. F. Soumer, reporting for Mrs. A. A. Holbrook, chairman of missionary education, who was not able to be present, distributed the books on Africa which will form the basis of study for the new year.

Mrs. Horace Walters, program chairman, outlined the program for the year on "Together We Seek".

Membership bulletins were distributed showing the reorganized circles and the list of members of each.

A letter was read from the president, Mrs. Paul Dellaria, thanking the members for their many kindnesses while she was a patient in the hospital. She is now recuperating at home.

The spelling match team of Mrs. Thomas Brodhead went down to defeat with Mrs. Fred Shoemaker, Mrs. John Staples and Miss Burd still standing on the other team.

Mrs. Brockman served coffee and home-made cake to her guests. The offering will be turned into the WSCS fund.

Jolly Janes At Heller Home

Bartonville. The Jolly Jane Club met at the home of Mrs. Havland Heller with sewing and knitting proceeding apace. Miss Mary Allegre was awarded the hostess prize.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Donald Hartman, Mrs. Joseph Dunbar, Mrs. Russell Bond, Mrs. Roy Schreck, Mrs. Fred Walters, Mrs. Richard Coss, Miss Emma Dunbar, Miss Mary Allegre, Mrs. Maude Bush by the hostess, Mrs. Heller.

The next meeting will be held on February 9 at the home of Mrs. Russell Bond when the group will make cancer dressings.

Portland Presbyterians

Portland—The Ladies Aid and Missionary Circle of the Portland Presbyterian Church will meet on Wednesday, February 4, at 2:30 in the chapel. Mrs. E. L. Kennedy, president, will preside and will be in charge of the lesson for the day.

Mrs. Fellerer And Sisters At Luncheon

Mrs. Alice Fellerer, recuperating after a long illness, was yesterday well enough to enjoy a dinner planned for her by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Paul Fellerer.

Her guests included her sisters, Mrs. Minnie Aint, Mrs. Mayme Hunt and Mrs. Libby Bossard, the last of Riverdale, N. J., Mrs. Stamez, and her son, Lt. Col. Paul M. Fellerer, now home on leave before he leaves for duty on the West Coast.

Betty Lessig, R. Jones To Wed Saturday

Miss Betty Lessig, daughter of Mrs. Rachel Lessig of Stroudsburg, will become the bride of Raymond Jones, of Bangor on Saturday afternoon at 2, at the home of Rev. Adan Bohner of Kunkletown.

The bride has chosen Miss Janet Champlin, of Stroudsburg, as her maid of honor while Earl Welsher, of Bangor will serve as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception for 125 guests will be held at Chestnuthill Inn.

The bride is a graduate of Chestnuthill High School and is employed at Art Metal. Mr. Jones was graduated from Bangor High School and is a veteran of service with the U.S. Navy.

County PTA Council Talks Of County-Wide Program; Roundtable On Hot Lunches

Clearview School was host Wednesday night to the Monroe County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations. Mrs. David Mazer, president, presided at the meeting which was attended by a large group of presidents and representatives of local PTA units.

Before the meeting, Mrs. John Rumsey, of the Child Guidance Center, gave a short talk. She explained that the Child Guidance Center is planning a program which will be available to any PTA desiring it. For further information and to make plans to have the program presented at the monthly PTA meeting, they may call Mrs. Merle Stevenson.

Mrs. David Kahn, of the Medical Auxiliary, announced that there is a 20-minute film on Nurse Recruitment available to any school to be shown at PTA meetings or at any other time the school wishes to schedule it. This film is produced and sanctioned by the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania and should be of especial interest to schools which include junior and senior high classes.

Mrs. Mazer reported a request that the Monroe County Council invite the Northeast District to their Spring Conference, May 2. Plans for inviting and entertaining these delegates will be formulated.

There will be a Founders Day broadcast over the Mutual Network, February 17, 1:15-1:30 p. m., which will be in the form of a round table discussion. Problems of vital interest to PTA members will be aired on this program, it was announced.

Mrs. Mazer mentioned the new legislative program for the state, proposed by the Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers, which the Council will study.

A round table discussion on the question of hot lunch was conducted by Edwin Buck, of Clearview. All aspects were covered, from suggestions of how to use up surplus foods to the thought that in some cases it might be wise to allow the children to help in the planning of meals. Each school has its share of problems in connection with hot lunches, and successful solutions were pooled.

The highlight of the evening was a tour of the Clearview School, especially to the representatives of the school in outlying districts. The excellent lighting, the movable furniture, the modern flooring were inspected.

The class for ungraded children drew the most attention. In this room which is beautifully decorated, there is a loom, materials for the hooking of rugs, a closet filled with tools, work-benches, together with farm houses, doll houses, and many other types of crafts to occupy the minds and hands of the children attending this class.

Plans for the next PTA Council meeting will be announced later.

Baptist Groups To Meet

Portland — The Ladies Aid Society and Missionary Circle of the Baptist Church will meet Thursday, February 5, at the home of Mrs. Peter Michaels and daughter, Mrs. Harry Michaels. The meeting will begin at 2:30.

FAROUK'S QUEEN reveals her real romance

A 16-year-old schoolgirl caught the eye of Egypt's playboy king. In a year, she'd left her fiancé and was wearing the world's oldest, most glamorous crown. Now in exile, Princess Narriman sheds the veil of Moslem secrecy to describe the great love she "never dared hope for." Don't miss My True Self in the February Ladies' Home Journal . . . on sale now!

Have you seen those handsome black and white checked suits with matching stole? Or the well-tailored two-piece in blue wool jersey displayed on the cashier's landing? Have you seen those stunning Cashmere coats, and those adorable jeweled hats? Have you looked at any one of a dozen new accessories and basics and said, "They're for me?" If you have, there's springtime in your heart and you're probably juggling figures in your budget. That checked suit . . . HMMM! But as I've always said, it isn't the checks I worry about. It's the exchequer.

HERE AND THERE: Looking up from his drawing board in the advertising department, Walter Wyckoff advises me that I'm rushing the season by two days. "Your bunch of violets and amethyst jewelry won't come in vogue until February," he explains. "Right now you should be wearing snowdrops, carnations and garnets." And the view from the window indicates that snowdrops will continue in favor for some time to come. However, I'm in a purple mood . . . and if it weren't that I'm also in the red, I'd do myself up brown right this minute with an all-new wardrobe.

Mrs. Albert Takes Part In Discussion

Miss Mary E. Samson, executive secretary of the Philadelphia-Camden Social Service Exchange was the discussion leader at a session of the Technical Advisory Committee of the Lehigh Valley Social Exchange held Thursday in the Bethlehem Community Chest Building.

Miss Samson had asked the local group to serve as a committee to prepare recommendations on the terms used by exchanges in the clearance service which they provide to health and welfare agencies. The project was undertaken at the request of the Pennsylvania Social Service Exchange Committee because of the uniformity and clarity in terminology is vitally necessary when the various exchanges compare volume of work and cost of operation. Such uniformity is also desired by agencies which, because of extensive geographical coverage, use several exchanges. Recommendations prepared by the committee will be presented to the state body at its meeting in Philadelphia on April 23.

Miss Mary Stevens, executive secretary of Lehigh County Children's Aid Society, is chairman of the Technical Advisory Committee, which worked with Miss Samson. Serving with her are: Mrs. Jean Albert, executive secretary, Children's Aid Society of Monroe County; Mrs. Helen Coleman, home service worker, Eastern Chapter, American Red Cross; Mrs. Bernice Fontaine, social worker, St. Luke's Hospital, Bethlehem; Miss Caroline McNamara, supervisor of Child Welfare Services, Warren County Welfare Board; John Nichols, executive secretary, Family Service of Lehigh County; Miss Grace Romale, Northampton County supervisor of Pennsylvania State Nurses; Miss Helen Moffatt, executive secretary, Lehigh County Crippled Children's Society; Miss Anna Voelker, executive director, Lehigh County Public Health Nursing Association; Raven Ziegler, probation officer of Lehigh County.

Ex-officio members of the committee are Dr. Charles Rominger, president of the Exchange board, and Miss Ella Siegfried, executive director of the Social Service Exchange.

Deadlines Face State Motorists

Midnight tomorrow, January 31, marks a traditional double deadline for Pennsylvania's motorists. For after that hour, their 1952 operator's license cards are no good. The inspection stickers on their windshields, if placed there longer ago than Nov. 1, 1952, are also invalid.

In a report to Otto F. Messner, State secretary of revenue, the Bureau of Motor Vehicles yesterday revealed that 3,736,910 drivers' licenses for 1953 already have been mailed out, leaving about 254,974 persons who have not yet taken care of their driving privilege credentials for this year.

The secretary cautioned motorists that there would be no extension of the expiration date either for drivers' cards or inspection stickers.

Emmaus Downs Whitehall In First Championship Contest

Moyermen Now Oppose Palmerton

Slatington—Emmaus earned the right to oppose Palmerton for the first half championship in the Lehigh Valley League last night, when the green and white clad pupils of Coach Kenny Moyer fought off a second half spurt to whip Whitehall, 51-47, before a packed house here at Smith Hall.

Emmaus, Whitehall and Palmerton finished the first half pennant fight in a three-way tie for first place with records of five wins and two setbacks. Emmaus now clashes with Palmerton on Saturday, also here at Smith Hall, with the title at stake.

The Emmaus club, that at one time apparently had the first half title in the bag, broke into the front with 12 points in the first period, while the Zephyrs of Whitehall could account for only eight.

Emmaus also had the better of the second round, 15-12, to move into a 27-20 edge at the halfway mark.

Rally

Whitehall found it court legs in the second half and held a 15-13 advantage in the third quarter and a narrow 12-11 edge during the last eight minutes of play. However, the Zephyrs never quite caught the high flying Emmaus crew in the home stretch.

Every member of the Emmaus club broke into the scoring column, while Charley German paced the Whitehall attack with 21 tallies, on seven field goals and the same number of charity shot conversions.

Emmaus had a one goal edge from the field and two from the foul line in racking up the important victory.

Bangor To Invade Coplay

Bangor—Bangor High, the vastly improved cage machine that finished the first half of the Lehigh-Northampton League with a record of four wins and the same number of setbacks, will launch the second portion of the current pennant chase today, at Coplay.

The junior varsity encounter will get underway at 6:45 p.m., while the varsity struggle begins at approximately 8 p.m.

Revenge

Coplay is one of the teams that scored a victory over Bangor in the opening half of the campaign.

Coach John Hoard's starting lineup will feature Joe Hoard and Gary Wynne at the forward positions, while Jim Rowlands handles the center duties. Bob Egbert and George Dellasandro will open at the guard spots.

Bangor also plays on a foreign court next Tuesday, when the Slaters invade the home boards of East Stroudsburg High. The Cavaliers fell victim to the Slaters in the first half of the season.

Dwyer Wins Wanamaker Mile Feature

By Ed Corrigan

New York (AP)—Fred Dwyer, 1953's invincible miler, won the famed Wanamaker Mile in the Madison Square Garden in 4:08.2 last night but he had to fight off a last lap challenge by Walter Molleaux, an outsider from Brown University.

Except for Molleaux, Dwyer had the field licked from the start as has become his custom. Fred Wilt of the New York Athletic Club was third, and Don Gehrmann, the winner for the past four years, fourth.

Rolf Lamers of Germany never was in contention and got home fifth. Stur Languist of Oklahoma A. and M. was last.

Lower Time

The New York Pioneer Club's four-man team ran the mile relay in 3:15.4, well below the listed world indoor record of 3:17.2, but it was in a handicap race, so the mark won't be accepted under both American and international rules.

Andy Stanfield, George Rhoden, Herb McKenley and Mal Whitfield handled the baton in that order.

Heinz Ulzheimer, another German import running his first race on boards, had more success than Lamers as he sped to victory in the half-mile run in 1:52, and in the process broke John Woodruff's meet record of 1:32.8 set in 1950.

Harrison Dillard of Cleveland won the 60-yard high hurdles for the seventh successive year, in 7.3 seconds, barely beating out young Milton Campbell, a Plainfield, N. J., high school student.

DeVivo's Quintet In Action

DeVivo's Shoemen, only one game away from the Industrial League championship, will step out of league action today to clash with the Patriots in the second half of a March of Dimes doubleheader, at Allentown's South Mountain Junior High. The contest is scheduled to get under way at 8:15 p.m.

Coach Bill Crooks announced last night that his squad would leave from in front of DeVivo's shop at 6:30 p.m.

Injury

Crooks also announced that Floyd "Blink" Holloway would only see limited service for the Shoemen, because of a nail puncture of the foot.

Mantle States Demand

Boston (AP)—Mickey Mantle, the New York Yankees' slugging young outfielder, said yesterday he wants $25,000 for the 1953 season—a big boost from the approximately $10,000 he got last campaign.

Shoemen Rally To Decision Barbers, 65-56

DeVivo's Shoemen moved to within one game of the Industrial League championship at the Monroe County YMCA last night, when the charges of Coach Bill Crooks rallied in the second half to take the measure of Frank's Barbers, 65-56, after facing a four-point deficit at halftime.

The Shoemen did virtually all of their damage in the third quarter, when DeVivo's club ran up a total of 21 points, while the Barbers could account for only six.

Failure

Frank's contingent led 15-10 at the end of the first period and 33-29 at halftime, and then held a 17-15 edge in the final round. However, nothing the Barbers did could make up for the third period damage.

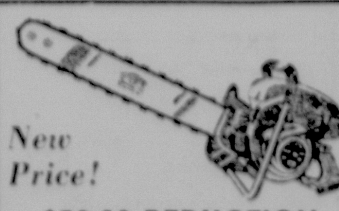

"Big John" Possinger was the fair haired boy for the Shoemen, as he scored 28 points. Henry "Hank" Stetler was next in line with 16 markers.

Warriorettes Ready To Meet Cheyney

Eleven veteran performers make up the 16-member girls' basketball team at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, although Coach Genevieve Zimbar is still far from certain as to the starting lineup for Saturday's tussle with Cheyney Teachers, on the latter's home court.

Grace Asberry, captain elect of next season's ESSTC field hockey contingent, is virtually certain of a starting guard position. Asberry is regarded by many as one of the best defensive players in the history of girls' basketball up on Normal Hill. The hard playing junior is entering her third year of varsity basketball.

Mary Jane Zimmerman, goalie on the field hockey team and a campaigner in the National Tournament last season, is also listed among the guard candidates. Zimmerman is a guard, Janet Dix, sophomore Olympic representative from the local college, is a guard candidate, as are such veterans of last year's team as Joanne Lythgoe, junior field hockey star; Shirley Yeagle, a junior; Jessie Rowe, a senior, and Dolores Kramer, a junior.

Forwards

Carol Mosser, senior campaigner is one of the chief candidates for a forward berth on the ESSTC squad this year, due to fine performances in recent seasons. However, Mosser is just recovering from a bad case of virus and will probably be idle for a week.

Other forward candidates from last year's team are Edna Mae Michener, a junior field hockey star; Jean Hecht, junior member of the tennis team, and Dorris Zerby, sophomore.

Newcomers to the squad this year are Edith Bleikert, Kathleen Moran, Mary Schussler, Edna Ferchio and Diana Demianenko.

Although 16 players are on the squad, only 12 will receive game uniforms. It was announced by Coach Zimbar last night.

Cavaliers Open Second Half Of Lehigh-Northampton Race

East Stroudsburg High opens the second half of the Lehigh-Northampton League flag race today, when the Cavaliers invade the home domain of Hellertown. The junior varsity contest is slated to get under way at 6:45 p. m., and the main event at approximately 8 p. m.

The Cavaliers were able to win only one of eight games during the first half of the flag dash, with the lone victory being scored over Pen Argyl. Including non-league encounters, the East Stroudsburg quintet has been able to win only one of 12 games played thus far this season.

Hellertown

Hellertown wound up the first half of the Lehigh-Northampton campaign with three victories and five setbacks.

East Stroudsburg will undoubtedly open the contest with the same lineup that has carried the bulk of the load thus far this season.

This means that Don Herman and Captain Joe Chase will handle the forward duties, while Bill Pensyl jumps center. The guard spots will be handled by two members of a trio made up of Bill Sommers, Bob "Red" Kupiszewski and Harold White.

The Cavaliers return to action on their home boards next Tuesday, when Bangor invades the N. Courtland St. gymnasium. Bangor has held the upper hand over both Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg thus far this season.

Stroudsburg High enjoys an open date today.

Firm Hired To Investigate TV

New York (AP)—Baseball's Major League TV Committee met long enough yesterday to recommend the hiring of a firm to make a survey on what injury, if any, the televising of major league games was doing to minor league attendances.

Statement

"We have to get some facts," explained Frank Shaughnessy, president of the International League.

Tannersville Club Names New Officers

Scotrun—Dick Peechatka, veteran baseball campaigner in Monroe County, was elected president of the Tannersville entry in the Pocono Mountains League last night, during a meeting of the club here at Johnson's Diner. Peechatka is also a member of the club's pitching staff.

Clair Bloss, veteran infielder, was named vice president, while Amos Johnson was selected to fill the office of secretary. Horace Hartshorn was elected treasurer.

The Tannersville team wasn't prepared to officially name its manager last night, but the more than 15 players in attendance did reveal that Leon Werkheiser, well known outfielder, has been named to serve as assistant manager.

Announcement

It was learned that a managerial announcement would be made in the near future.

The club also decided to chance off a rifle and to hold a chicken dinner on some future Saturday night, in an effort to raise money. Charley "Sonny" Landis, Austin Smallcomb, Leon Werkheiser and Bob Hallet were named on the rifle committee, while Horace and George Hartshorn, Amos Johnson, Gerald "Mike" Bonser and Les "Bruno" Doll were selected to make up the dinner committee.

Station Heads Testify At Football Trial

Philadelphia, (AP)—The president of a television station 74 miles from Philadelphia testified at the anti-trust trial of the National League yesterday that he was forced to cancel telecasts of five NFL games because his station lies one mile inside the league's black-out limit.

Clair McCollough, president and general manager of WGAL-TV, Lancaster, Pa., told a federal court judge he was informed by Philadelphia Eagles football officials that nothing could be done about the difficult situation in which he was placed by the league's ban of game telecasts within a 75-mile radius.

Appearing at the fourth day of the government's anti-trust suit trial against the league, McCollough testified that his station was damaged "to the extent that a television station deals with the public."

Theory

"The public has respect and confidence in a station," said McCollough. "Once you betray that confidence you lose listeners—and once you lose listeners you are out of business."

At that point, NFL Attorney Harry Shapiro requested that the trial attorney for the Department of Justice, W. Perry Epps, ask McCollough "if he is still in business."

"We're still in business," McCollough replied, "and still suffering from the troubles of 1949." Another witness, Charles Malloy of San Jose, Calif., vice president of the Santa Clara Broadcast System, testified that his radio station, KSJO, lost about $6,000 during the 1950 football season because it was denied permission to broadcast NFL games.

TRY UNIFLO

the first real year 'round, heavy-duty motor oil for high-compression engines

...HELPS KEEP NEW CARS NEW!

Esso UNIFLO MOTOR OIL

Approved by leading car manufacturers

HERE'S HOW UNIFLO PREVENTS DEPOSITS THAT CAUSE ENGINE "KNOCK"

UNIFLO MOTOR OIL

HIGH QUALITY MOTOR OIL

These photos show the tops of two pistons from new cars of the same age and make operated under identical conditions . . . except that different motor oils were used in the crankcases. Look at the amazing difference! The piston lubricated with UNIFLO is much cleaner, and only has a light deposit. The piston on the right, which was lubricated with a conventional type of high-quality motor oil is caked with heavy carbon-type deposits which can raise octane requirements and eventually cause severe knocking.

Until now, carbon deposits have reduced the efficiency of new engines after a few thousand miles . . . often causing knock. Uniflo checks the accumulation of these deposits in a clean engine—helps keep it running like new. This feature plus its great ability to reduce wear makes Uniflo the ideal oil for modern tight-fitting high-compression engines. Uniflo was developed only for such engines—in older cars, our other fine motor oils will give full protection.

Esso

Another fine ESSO product for Happy Motoring

UNIFLO is an entirely new idea in engine protection. It replaces the different grades of motor oil many motorists have had to use in different seasons of the year—giving you one all-around motor oil for all temperatures. In winter, you get easy quick starts with less drain on your battery. Yet at engine temperatures of 350° or more, Uniflo gives your engine outstanding lubrication protection. If your car is new or in A-1 shape, keep it that way with Uniflo!

Stroudsburg's decisive victory over East Stroudsburg in basketball on Wednesday was sweet revenge for the 7-0 setback suffered by the Mountaineers in football last fall. The East Stroudsburg-Stroudsburg court clash brought out the best in the Mountaineers, as the charges of Coach Sam Russell swept to a 65-45 decision over their rival cagers from across the bridge. However, picking out the game's outstanding player is a task comparable to that of selecting a shipped star in the Milky Way.

The Stroudsburg victory wasn't a one-man show, but rather a brand of team work that sprang into view in the second period and during the short space of eight minutes decided the first basketball "Battle of the Boroughs" this season. It certainly must be recognized that Captain Al Adelmann played his finest game of the season thus far, completely controlling both backboards during the first two periods of the contest. An unofficial count revealed that Adelmann captured 19 rebounds during the course of the first half.

At was able to play only a couple of minutes in the third quarter due to fatigue and departed from the game in a state of near exhaustion. Billy "Bump" Metzger, the kid with a heart as big as the average basketball court, made a serious bid for a regular position on the squad by scoring 14 points, most of which came in the second period, when Metzger gave the best demonstration by one player, in a single game, in the Stroudsburg-East Stroudsburg area this season. The Mountaineers have taken on new life since Metzger, who suffered a very serious internal injury in football last season, received permission to return to the court sport.

Karl Weingartner's play in the first round was also instrumental in the Stroudsburg victory, as the small, but highly regarded, guard scored the first four points for the Russellmen, just when it appeared as if neither team was capable of putting the ball through the hoop, from either the foul line or the field. However, as mentioned above, it wasn't one or two players that brought home the bacon for the Mountaineers, but rather the best brand of teamwork exhibited by any high school aggregation to play on either the W. Main St. or N. Courtland St. boards thus far this season.

Any discussion of outstanding players, in regards to Wednesday's "Battle of the Boroughs", can't be complete unless the name of Joe Chase is brought into the conversation. This writer is of the firm conviction that the East Stroudsburg captain must be considered strongly when the Lehigh-Northampton League All-Star team is selected at the end of the current campaign. Joe tallied 20 of the losing 45 points for the Cavaliers, but it was his all-court play and not his scoring ability that brought this lanky cager to the attention of virtually every person who pushed his way into the East Stroudsburg gymnasium.

Chase was undoubtedly at his best when the rest of the Cavaliers were at their worst during the second period. For some unknown reason, two East Stroudsburg substitutes failed completely to carry out instructions from the bench and the failure resulted in the outright collapse of the home team's defense. However, Chase never quit trying and most of the second round was guarding two and three Mountaineers, which is a physical impossibility. However, Joe never quit, not even when his club was out of the game entirely.

Stroudsburg, loser of all seven games during the first half of the Lehigh Valley League campaign, is slated to open the second half of the season at Emmaus next Tuesday. The Mountaineers will be strengthened by the presence of Metzger in the lineup and the return of the revitalized Dick Little and Bill Bailey, who should add that much needed altitude to the Stroudsburg cause. The experience stored up within the Mountaineers was used as a major weapon against the Cavaliers on Wednesday. In East Stroudsburg, the Russellmen met their first foe of equal size this season.

The victory on Wednesday was a form of revenge for Coach Russell, who lost the last basketball "Battle of the Boroughs" last season, on the same East Stroudsburg court. Bill Pensyl, the rising East Stroudsburg center, was hampered by personal fouls throughout the contest, committing four in the first half. However, the sophomore who is showing plenty of promise, finished the night's work with 10 points, although he had to be "yanked" from the game twice because of the mounting total of rule infractions.

Stroudsburg's dressing room was like that of the New York Yankees after the Bronx Bombers had clinched the pennant last season. You couldn't hear yourself think. However, on the other end of the building the East Stroudsburg cagers and coach were quiet and had very little to say, as they went about the task of dressing after a hot shower.

TTHS Puts Perfect Mark On Line Against Polk

Two Other Important Tilts On Agenda

Tobyhanna Township High reaches the halfway mark in its Monroe County League campaign today, when the charges of Coach Carl Majer play host to Polk, another annual powerhouse, on the Pocono Pines court. It will be the first meeting of the present season for the arch rivals.

TTHS, searching for its fourth straight championship, is coasting along in first place with four wins and no setbacks, while Polk is currently holding down the number three spot with a trio of wins and a single setback.

Polk is one of the teams expected to give TTHS a battle for the top laurels this season, even though the charges of Coach Art Smith suffered a setback at the hands of Barrett, the number two club in the standings.

TTHS has been hampered by the flu bug of late, but is expected to present its full squad for today's battle.

Polk and TTHS were scheduled to meet on Friday, January 9, but an ice storm forced postponement of this contest to Tuesday, February 17.

Barrett

Barrett, winner of four of five games thus far, will attempt to take its second straight from Pocono, on the Barrett court today. The host aggregation defeated Pocono on Tuesday of this week, 60-50, at Tannersville.

Pocono has won only one of five games this season.

Chestnut Hill, a club that suffered five straight defeats during the first half of the campaign, will be searching for its initial win of the campaign when Coolbaugh pays a visit to Brodheadsville today. Coolbaugh defeated Chestnut Hill at Tobyhanna, on Tuesday of this week, 39-36.

Coolbaugh has one win and four defeats to its credit at this date. In all cases the junior varsity contest gets underway at 7:15 p.m. and the main event approximately one hour later.

American Legion Entries To Bowl

American Legion Auxiliary bowling teams are slated to roll on the George N. Kemp Post alleys today. Schedule follows:

7 P. M.
Alleys one and two—Blue Jays vs. Easy Goers.
Alleys three and four—Twinkle Belles vs. Hot Spots.
9 P. M.
Alleys one and two—Poke Alongs vs. Merry Makers.
Alleys three and four—Jolly Janes vs. Woodpeckers.

St. Louis (P) — Fred M. Saigh took a firm stand yesterday against a distress sale of the St.

Fred Saigh

Louis Cardinals and disclosed that the problem of operation of the club for the present would be put up to top baseball officials.

Saigh reiterated he intends to sever relations with baseball now that he had been sentenced to prison for income tax evasion. But he left no doubt he doesn't intend to be pushed around in the sale if he can help it. He has until May 1 to get his business affairs in order.

Asked whether he would continue to handle contract signing of players in the meantime, Saigh explained:

The pattern of operation of the Cardinals will be pretty well decided after conferences he plans to hold in New York today with Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick and National League President Warren Giles.

Saigh came down to work as usual yesterday. He had a lot of personal business to handle, he said, before beginning his 15-month prison term meted out to him Wednesday by U. S. District Judge Roy W. Harper.

There was a strange hush about the Cardinal office yesterday. Employees came and went but without the usual hustle and bustle.

Waymart Nears Championship In Wayne Loop

Newfoundland — Waymart ran over one of its chief obstacles in the path to a fourth straight Wayne County Conference basketball championship on Tuesday, when the charges of Coach "Red" Walsh swamped Northern Wayne, a previously undefeated quintet, 95-59.

Waymart, with a record of eight wins and no defeats, plays host to Pleasant Mount, one win and six setbacks, today, in an effort to make another stride toward the title.

Greene-Dreher

Greene-Dreher-Stirling, fresh from a victory over Honesdale last Friday, will take its one victory and three loss record to Hawley, where the host club has failed to register a victory in seven league outings.

Walt Bjorn set a circuit single game high scoring mark on Tuesday, with 35 points, as he led Damascus to a 56-14 victory over Hawley. Damascus will attempt to improve its three wins and five setbacks record at Honesdale today. Honesdale has won five games and lost four.

Lake Township defeated Pleasant Mount on Tuesday, 60-52, and will risk its record of four victories and the same number of defeats against Northern Wayne, currently sporting a mark of five wins and a single setback.

Stydahar Named To Succeed Kuharich As Head Coach Of National Football Loop Cardinals

Chicago (P) — Big Joe Stydahar, 40, who directed the Los Angeles Rams to a world pro football title in 1951, yesterday was named head coach of the Chicago Cardinals.

In a comedy of miscalculated announcements, the Cardinals disclosed at a noon press conference that Stydahar was given a three-year contract to succeed Joe Kuharich, fired as Cardinal coach Wednesday.

Stydahar earlier had announced at Los Angeles that he had accepted the Cardinal post and that sent club officials hustling to back up Jumbo Joe's statement.

Walter Wolfner, Cardinal managing director, confirmed Stydahar's appointment, but said a contract will not be signed formally until the 280-pound now coach appears here a week from yesterday.

Increase

Wolfner said Stydahar would get a "bigger" salary than Kuharich, who was paid off a reported $14,000 for the one year left in his two-year contract.

Stydahar is an old pro, both as a player and a coach. He performed as a brilliant National Football League tackle for the Chicago Bears from 1936 through 1946, and then took over as head coach of the Rams in 1950. The Rams won the NFL divisional overshadow almost everything else on the program.

While Saigh's decision was voluntary, the baseball commissioner has authority to invoke a rule enabling him to bar anybody from the game "as detrimental to baseball." The National League constitution also has a clause which enables its executives to keep a person from owning a club.

The name of William Walsingham, vice president of the Cardinals, popped up as possibly a key man in the sale of the club. Walsingham, 43, is a nephew of the late Sam Breadon who owned the Cards before Saigh and the late Robert Hannegan, former postmaster general, bought control.

In New York, Walsingham said he was "very much interested" in purchasing the club from Saigh, adding:

"Naturally, I don't have the kind of money it would take to make the purchase. But I believe I can raise it. Naturally, I don't intend to do anything until I've had a chance to talk with Mr. Saigh."

title in 1950 and 1951, and in 1951 defeated the Cleveland Browns, 24-17, to win the world pro crown.

In the midst of reported dissension, Stydahar quit the Rams organization early last fall and hooked up as scout and part-time assistant coach with the Green Bay Packers.

Wolfner said Stydahar would have free rein in selecting three, or possibly four assistant coaches.

It was a squabble over assistant coaches that caused the firing of Kuharich, who wanted Bill Daddio and Mike Nixon retained as aides in the faces of front office objection.

Stydahar starred in college at West Virginia University.

A's, Tigers Shift Utility Infielders

Philadelphia (P) — The Philadelphia Athletics yesterday traded Billy Hitchcock to the Detroit Tigers for another utility infielder, Don Kolloway, in a straight player deal.

The A's general manager, Arthur H. Ehlers, said there was no cash involved and no other players shifted.

Second Swap

It marked the second major trade by the pennant-conscious Athletics in the last three days. The Mackmen on Tuesday traded first baseman Ferris Fain to the Chicago White Sox for first sacker Eddie Robinson in a five-player deal.
